About the Speaker:

Shri. Athar Aamir-ul-Shafi Khan

IAS, Commissioner of Srinagar Municipal Corporation (SMC)

CEO Srinagar Smart City Limited, CEO, Srinagar Development Authority

IAS Topper Athar Amir-ul-Shafi Khan hails from Anantnag in South Kashmir. In 2014, he got selected for Indian Railway Traffic Service (IRTS) for which he was undergoing training in Indian Railways Institute of Transport Management, Lucknow. In 2016, Athar Aamir Khan achieved a significant milestone by successfully clearing the Civil Services Examination (UPSC) in his very first attempt, securing an impressive 50.27% marks and second rank at the age of 23. Athar became the second Kashmiri to top an IAS examination. His brilliance enabled him to crack multiple competitive exams, eventually leading him to join the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) in Mandi. At IIT Mandi, he pursued a B.Tech degree in Electrical Engineering, while also showcasing his talent beyond academics. He even earned the prestigious 'Best Young Scientist' award in the National Children's Science competition.
