• SO NEWS DESK

SRINAGAR, DEC 14 - An online career guidance cum motivational session was conducted by the Centre for Career Planning and Counselling (CCPC), University of Kashmir under the auspices of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav for the civil service aspirants of Abdul Ahad Azad Memorial Degree College, Bemina, Srinagar on Thursday during which Mr. Athar Amir-ul-Shafi Khan, IAS, Commissioner, SMC, Srinagar, CEO, Srinagar Smart City Ltd. And Vice-Chairman, Srinagar Development Authority, Dr. B. N. Ramesh, IPS, former DGP and Mr. Nitin Shivhare, CMD, Analyst IAS interacted with the students of the college and provided them the roadmap for appearing in civil service examinations.

In his opening remarks, Dr. Nazir Ahmad Simnani, Principal, Abdul Ahad Azad Memorial Degree College, Bemina highlighted the importance of career counselling and guidance for competitive examinations and underscored the need for such motivational and guidance sessions for students so that they are able to set and achieve their goals in a time-bound manner. He said that such career guidance sessions pave way for self-awareness and self-discovery of students as well as their self-accomplishment.

In his talk, Mr. Athar Amir-ul-Shafi Khan IAS gave several useful and practical tips to the students on how to prepare for the civil service examinations and guided them about time management, personal management and effective strategies required for cracking the same. He dwelled upon the appropriate methods of making notes, reading newspapers, solving question papers, writing essays, choosing and reading course material for sucon. He called upon students to study with full dedication and commitment and devote maximum time to their preparation.

Dr. B. N. Ramesh, IPS, former DGP who has triple Ph.D. to his credit besides several other degrees, honours and medals explained twenty important traits required for cracking civil service examinations and urged upon students to inculcate those traits with missionary zeal so as to achieve their goals.

While citing several examples of a few achievers he highlighted the importance of will power, excellence, self-respect, discipline, sound health and dedication. Mr. Nitin Shivhare, CMD, Analyst IAS in his interaction with the students explained the vision and mission of his academy and the services offered by them to civil service aspirants. Director of the Centre for Career Planning and Counselling, Prof. M. I. Geer explained the role of CCPC in imparting career counselling, placements and coaching for various national level competitive examinations and expressed his resolve to conduct more such inspirational and motivational guidance sessions for the students of other degree colleges in future in association with academies like Analyst IAS.

KUs CCPC holds online career counselling cum placement guidance session for management students of North, South and Main campus

KU empowers students with online career counselling, placement guidance

SO NEWS DESK

Srinagar, Oct 05: To equip pre-final and final semester management students, spanning both the main and satellite campuses, with the necessary insights and skills to excel in their future careers, the Centre for Career Planning and Counselling (CCPC), Kashmir University (KU) Wednesday organised an online career counselling and placement guidance session here.

In her message, Prof Nilofer Khan said that CCPC has consistently demonstrated a commitment to nurture the aspiring students' professional growth and development.

"Such efforts are instrumental in shaping the future of our students, and we look forward to continued collaborations that benefit our academic community," she added.

Career counsellor and the founder of 'Ways to Success', Deepika Unni took the helm as the guiding force behind the enlightening session. With nearly three decades of corporate experience encompassing roles in India, Dubai and Germany, she shared her expertise across domains.

During the session, Deepika Unni delved into a comprehensive overview of campus placements, emphasising the pivotal role of soft skills and offering guidance on CV preparation, appropriate attire and interview readiness.

Director, CCPC, Prof Geer Mohammad Ishaq underscored the importance of conducting similar sessions for students across all university departments. He emphasised the importance of preparing students to navigate the dynamic job market and corporate landscape, aiming to foster their development in essential areas such as work ethics, interpersonal skills, leadership and communication abilities. "The ultimate goal is to empower our students to thrive in campus recruitment drives and beyond," he said while stressing the need for greater collaboration among the satellite campuses to facilitate such initiatives.

The online session was coordinated by a dedicated team of faculty members, including Dr. Umar Farooq and Dr. Maleeha Gul from North Campus, Baramulla; Dr. Irfana Baba and Dr. Ashiq from South Campus, Anantnag; and Dr. Mohammad Ayub from the Management Studies department of the main campus. The CCPC plans to offer advanced career and placement guidance through one-on-one interactions, tailoring its support to students' individual interests and aspirations.

KU is committed to nurturing the potential of its students and preparing them for success in the competitive world of employment. Sessions like these exemplify the institution's dedication to its mission.
